Sorrow Is the Colour

Katharina Nuttall

Sorrow is the colour of my aching heart
I need to throw you in the forest and leave you in the dark
I need to find that hill where clear water runs
Today I lost the moon the stars and the sun

Somewhere thereâ€™s a place for me
Everything is free
I know that somewhere thereâ€™s a place for me
A place where beauty angels sing

Sorrow is the colour of my aching heart
(Sorrow is the colour of my aching heart)
I need to throw you in the forest and leave you in the dark
I need to find that hill where clear water runs
Today I lost the moon the stars and the sun

Somewhere thereâ€™s a place for me
Everything is free
I know that somewhere thereâ€™s a place for me
A place where beauty angels sing so sweet
A place where beauty angels sing so sweet
