

In the Morning

Mary J. Blige

Baby, when this all began
We said that love would never end
Some time has passed, we've settled in
Now the shadow of darkness is hovering, yeah Tell me what happened
It started changing up and you
And me are acting so different, oh I know that I love you
And you're in love with me that's what you say
But I just can't believe it Yeah, we disagree, fuss and fight
We get it wrong more than it's right
Yeah, we make mistakes and fix mistakes
We're never even seein' eye to eye But when the dust clears and settles
And it's all said and done
When the night breaks and day finally comes Will you love me in the morning?
After the evening, will you leave me?
Will you love me in the morning?
Now that the sun's up, will you give up? I agree, it's different
What once was just ain't the same, no
But weren't you expecting this?
See when it's true love there will be some bitterness, yeah Now you're so distant
I know I'm not the woman that I was
But you are not the man you were, oh But if you say you love me
When it's good enough, you're still in love
You shouldn't even shake your world Yeah, we disagree, fuss and fight
We get it wrong more than it's right
Yeah, we make mistakes and fix mistakes
We're never even seein' eye to eye But when the dust clears and settles
And it's all said and done
When the night breaks and day finally comes Will you love me in the morning?
After the evening, will you leave me?
Will you love me in the morning?
Now that the sun's up, will you give up? I know things ain't the way it was to be
But it's okay we'll get through this
Baby, it's worth it, sometimes we have doubts
And love just ain't perfect, so don't give up Just love me in the morning
After the evening, will you leave me?
Will you love me in the morning?
Now that the sun's up, will you give up? Will you love me in the morning?
Now that the sun's up, will you give up?
After the evening, will you leave me?

Love me in the morning
Now that the sun's up, will you give up? Don't give up on me, just love me
Just love me, just love me
