

Beautiful Second Hand Man

Ginette Reno

Ginette Reno - Beautiful Second Hand Man -1970I used to sit at home and cry

The touch of love had passed me by

But then you came along

With all those dated routines you've used before

Worn out faded old daydreams by the score

But I'm telling you one thing now for sure, baby.Beautiful second hand man

You saved my life for me

Beautiful second hand man

You taught my eyes to see

Now I can:

Live like a woman

Move like a woman

Love like a woman can

Goodbye and may love smile upon you

Oh, may love smile upon you.Goodbye goodbye goodbye you second hand man.I guess I know you've been around

Because on inquiry I have found

You broke a dozen hearts

With all those dated routines you've used before

Worn out faded old daydreams by the score

But I'm telling you one thing now for sure, baby.Beautiful second hand man

You saved my life for me

Beautiful second hand man

You taught my eyes to see

Now I can:

Live like a woman

Move like a woman

Love like a woman can

Goodbye and may love smile upon you

Oh, may love smile upon you.Goodbye goodbye goodbye you second hand man.

Goodbye goodbye goodbye you second hand man.

Goodbye goodbye goodbye you second hand man.
