Your Nightmare

Eighteen Visions

You're so meaningless and forgettable
You gotta figure it out, figure it out and let it goYou wanna bury us with the bones
Now tell me what the fuck do you know?
You're gonna hide behind those words you say
But don't think that I don't knowWe wanna bleed for more, we never wanna get old
We don't wanna get lost in the fashion
(Come on)You wanna bury us with the bones
Now tell me what the fuck do you know?
You're gonna hide behind those words you say
But don't think that I don't knowThis is your fantasy and this is your darkest dream
And it's just become your nightmare
We'll smash your fantasy 'cause it's not what it seems
And it's just become your nightmareYou'll be the one dropping to your knees
Begging for us to put you at ease
When the light goes on the darkness will subside
You'll be the one running for your lifeThis is your fantasy and this is your darkest dream
And it's just become your nightmare
We'll smash your fantasy 'cause it's not what it seems
And it's just become your nightmareYou wanna bury us with the bones
Now tell me what the fuck do you know?
You're gonna hide behind those words you say
But don't think that I don't knowYeah, you're so damn patheticYou're so meaningless
You're so meaningless and forgettable
