Go

Barbies cradle

Go
Love her with all your heart
Go
Leave me where I amCause I'll be fine
I'll take care of my self
I will keep everything we sharedGo
To a higher plane
Go
Don't worry I'll stay saneThe day we end
The waiting starts
But it's patient waiting waitingIt's good
It's good for the heart
Food for the soulGo
You can always return
Go
No bridges will be burnedCause I'm a friend
As much as a lover
This doesn't know an ending
We'll keep each other in the heart and reunite our souls
