

Can't Stay The Same

Saves The Day

Go if you wanna go
Don't wanna lie here while you cry yourself to sleep
And say what you wanna say
Cause I can see by your face that somethings not the same
Hey, hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!

Do what you wanna do
Don't wanna keep you here holding so tight you can't breathe
And stay another minute stay
Cause I don't think I wanna live here dying all alone
Hey, hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same

Yeah!

Well I've been thinking about the words I've said before
When I was locked outside and pounding on the door
I wish I said 'I'm sorry, sweetheart I can't be the man I've lead you to believe that I would be.
Somewhere deep inside I know there's something wrong
I know you're never safe around me anymore?
Well hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!

Hey, hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!
