Neato

Baxendale

[Hello. You are listening to the songs of Baxendale. This is Neato]
I don't know what to say You used to act so far away
But recently this you and me thing has started slipping in to place

I've never been the type to fall for girls at second sight
But here we are again playing console games until it's getting light

You're never gonna beat my highest score but now I feel there's something more worth waiting for
and as your fingers take control there's so much more I want to know
'cause you're so-oh
[neato, neato]

I've seen you in my dreams in virtual reality
this is so much better, baby, what the hell is happening to me

It's just the colors in your eyes the concentration on your face and in the ?? you look just like some kind of hero from outerspace, yeah

You're never gonna beat my highest score
but now I feel there's something more worth waiting for
and as your fingers take control there's so much more I want to know
'cause you're so-oh
[neato, neato]
[neato, neato]
Yeah, but now you've gone and beat my highest score but somehow I just don't seem to care anymore It's getting light but please don't go
I think there's something you should know You're so-oh
[neato, neato]
[neato, neato]
[neato, neato]
[neato, neato]
