Probably On Thursday

Sarah Brightman

Can you see all of me
I am hiding nothing
Must you stay so far away
Won't you whisper something?
You'll go and leave me
Don't have you tell me
Don't have you tell me
You'll be unfaithful
Probably on Thursday
Probably on Thursday
I would do anything
Sit and count your flowers
Give to you my everything
For just a few more hours
You never listen
You want to hurt me
You want to hurt me
You'll be unfaithful

Probably on Thursday
Probably on Thursday
I spend all my precious time
Wishing you would love me
You are trying hard to find
Ways to get rid of me
You use to love me
Look at you now love
Look at you now love
You'll be unfaithful
Possibly on Wednesday
Probably on Thursday
You'll be unfaithful
Possibly on Wednesday
Probably on Thursday
