It Would Be Cooler If You Did

Quicksand

If you turn, turn away
I can pretend that youll stayIf you want it
If you want I will
Torn in two, torn away
I could not look
I wish you didIf you want it
If you want I will
If you really want it
If you really want toAll ways I want to burn
Set fire to things that were not returned
So take what you can get
Second chance might not come
Or we can just stay dumbIf really you want to
I, I will
If you really want to
If you turn away
If you turn, turn awayIf you want to
If you want to
If you want to
(Are we rolling?)
