

Run, Forrest, Run

The Groove

Where do we go my friend again?
What are we searching for?
Is there time for looking back “ No!

Shadowy past that that all we had
Is making up on you.
Glimpse of the brightest days ahead “ So!

Run, Forrest, Run.
Get the maze undone.
Run, run for fun,
Until you get there
Where we all have begun.

Childish dreams, I left behind.
Walking down the road, folks I finds.

And now I am going nowhere,
What else can I do.
Someone shaggy down there,
Teaching you, that..

Run, Forrest, Run.
Get the maze undone.
Run, run for fun,
Until you get there
Where we all have begun.

Willows bend down in the rain,
Hollow dreams tend to betray.

Like the wise-men contemplate,
Felt it was too late,
Never thought to be part of this world.

Run, Forrest, Run.
Get the maze undone.
Run, run for fun,
Until you get there
Where we all have begun.
