The Fever [x2]

She don't know what she's talking about

 Yeah, she's running on empty

She an't sing, she just screams and shouts

 Yeah, she's running on empty

She can't feel for the second choosing

 To live her life without you

She'd be the one to - she'd be the one to

 Try and find what I'm after

B. She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts

C. He thinks it's easy

 But it's not easy

 Because without him

 My heart is empty

 He thinks it's easy

 But it's not easy

 Because without him

 My heart is empty

She don't know what she's talking about

 Yeah, she's running on empty

She an't sing, she just screams and shouts

 Yeah, she's running on empty

She'd be the one to say 'I don't know'

 I don't know anything about you'

 But she can't live - she can't live -

 She can't live without you

She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts
