

All Your Light (Times Like These)

Portugal. The Man

I'm just the shadow of a bigger man
Glowing brighter with each year I am
I was standing on a mountain
Just looking down

It's like my daddy says
You gotta use your head

My body wont work for nobody but me sone
No one said that I aim to please

All your light can save me
All your light all your light can't save me
I won't wait for my time to come
I can't wait I can't wait for my time to come

My body wont work for nobody but me son

As a boy I had it figured out
There are things that you cant live without

And I became
Whole again
Cause no one said no one said no one said
There'd be times like these

I said all your light can save me
All your light all your light can save me
I won't wait for my time to come
I can't wait I can't wait for my time to come

My body wont work for nobody but me son
No one said there'd be times like these

My body wont work for nobody but me son
No one said there'd be times like these

My body wont work for nobody but me son
No one said there'd be times like these

My body wont work for nobody but me son
No one said there'd be times like these

I was making plans
When I broke your rings
No one said no one said no one said it'd be suicide

All your light can save me
All your light all your light can save me
I won't wait for my time to come
I can't wait I can't wait for my time to come

All your light can save me
All your light all your light can save me
I won't wait for my time to come
I can't wait I can't wait for my time to come

All your light can save me
All your light all your light can save me
I won't wait for my time to come
I can't wait I can't wait for my time to come

All your light can save me
All your light all your light can save me
I won't wait for my time to come
I can't wait I can't wait for my time to come
