

Human

Plumb

Oh we're human How can I love you
When all I got is hatred
Why should you believe me
If all I do is faked
Can anyone hear me
When all I've got is noise
And my opinion is
The loudest voice We're human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside
Oh we're human
Oh we're human
I don't wanna be wrong
But I'm not always right
My words aren't for killing you
They should bring you life
And lips are for speaking
The remedy
Like saying I love you
To my enemies We're human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside
We're human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside
Oh we're human
Oh we're human
We're running on our hearts so that we believe
Open up my eyes so that we can see
Put your hand in mine, skin to skin, we're all human We're running on our hearts so that we believe
Open up my eyes so that we can see
Put your hand in mine, skin to skin, we're all human We're human
Our hatred is useless

We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside

We're human

Our hatred is useless

We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be

Oh we're human

Oh we're human Oh we're human

Oh we're human
