More Of Your Love

The Derailers

I don't want much
Just a little bit more of your love
More of your love, more of your loveI don't need much
Just a little bit more of your love
I need a little bit more of it every night and dayWell, I got everything I need that's what I told myself
I wasn't about to give up my heart to no one else
I was afraid to love somebody new
Now I'm just afraid I'll never get enough of youI don't want much
Just a little bit more of your love
More of your love, more of your loveI don't need much
Just a little bit more of your love
I need a little bit more of it every night and daySome folks gotta have a lot of things to own
Fast cars and swimming pools and fancy homes
But they don't got it made the way we do
My satisfaction's guaranteed just loving youI don't want much
Just a little bit more of your love
More of your love, more of your loveI don't need much
Just a little bit more of your love
I need a little bit more of it every night and day
I need a little bit more of it every night and day
