So Good (remix)

Electrik Red

Young Moolah, baby
How did I let him come back?
How did I let him come back?
She wants ya, I need ya, please tell me to stay
She says that she loves ya like I love ya
But you know that it ain't the same
We had a fling, this I know
But now we got a thing, she gotta let you go
'Cause now I'm actin' crazy
I'm out here callin' you, baby
I shouldn't have let you hit that
'Cause now I can't forget that
I thought I wouldn't really give a fuck
But now a bitch all in love
Don't mean to be a hater but ooh, shit, damn
You're so good, so good, so good, so good
You're so good, so good, so ooh, shit, damn
So good, so good, so good, so good
You're so good, so good, so ooh, shit, damn
I miss ya, I can taste ya, please come back to me
Baby, lay in my arms and say you'll never leave
I got a thing and I know you know
So boy don't play with me, just stay with me
And allow me to give you more
My girls all call me crazy
'Cause I'm out here callin' you, baby
I shouldn't have let you hit that
'Cause now I can't forget that

I thought I wouldn't really give a fuck
But now a bitch all in love
Don't mean to be a hater but ooh, shit, damn
You're so good, so good, so good, so good
You're so good, so good, so ooh, shit, damn
So good, so good, so good, so good
You're so good, so good, so ooh, shit, damn
I got that good good and when comes to me
Every woman that could would
Baby, I'm electric and now you're infected

Now what am I to do, fuck you when you let me?
Holla at your boy but do not lose your voice
And Weezy make it moist
Yep and we besides cool, damn, bam
And she was like ooh, shit, damn
I told you I had a girl
And you told me you a badder girl
I say hey, I ain't tryna argue
I ain't even trippin', shawty I'ma call you
And I did, so I can't really blame you, baby
Because I did so might as well make it official
Like a ref with a whistle at the Super Bowl game
Red and Wayne
You're so good, so good, so good, so good
You're so good, so good, so ooh, shit, damn
So good, so good, so good, so good
You're so good, so good, so ooh, shit, damn
So good
