

Love Traffic

Dannii Minogue

There is a jam
Love traffic, love traffic, there is a jam
Love traffic, love traffic, there is a jam
Love traffic has come to a halt
I should be cruising but I'm losing and it's not my fault
Love traffic, there's a jam
Gettin' nothing of your lovin' love, I know I can
Don't try to tell me I'm not your cup of tea
They say, men prefer blondes but I know you prefer me
So why can't you let go? Give me some of your lovin'
'Cause I got the hots for you, you're driving me crazy
Is there a problem, I can't see? problem I cannot see Why can't it be you and me? Must be
Love traffic has come to a halt
I should be cruising but I'm losing and it's not my fault
Love traffic there's a jam
I'm gettin' nothing of your lovin' love, I know I can
Don't try to tell me that you're way too busy
'Cause I've got all the time in the world
Enough to make you dizzy
I like you just the way you are even if you spell trouble
So get yourself on into your car
Here to me on the double
I know that we're made for romance
I'm beggin' you for just once chance, must be
Love traffic has come to a halt
I should be cruising but I'm losing and it's not my fault
Love traffic there's a jam
I'm gettin' nothing of your lovin' love, I know I can

Whatever happened to my love life
Whatever happened to it, you got me going through it
Can you tell me that I'm in strife?
I'm looking for that perfect romance, baby
Things have got to change, I'm gonna rearrange
Got to go and correct the flow, my life is moving way too slow
Cruisin' love traffic, now pump
Pumping love on, come on, come on, now pump
Cruisin', cruisin' love traffic

Now pump, baby, love traffic
Love traffic, love traffic, love traffic, love traffic
Love traffic, one two three, bass
I should be cruisin' but I'm losing
And it's not my fault, there is a jam love traffic
I'm getting nothing of your loving like I know I can
There is a jam, whatever happened to my love life
Love traffic, there's a shortage, I'm in strife
Lady luck's not on my side, is this to be my destiny
Well, it's gonna to have to change, I should be cruisin'
I got to rearrange
Got to go and correct the flow
My life is moving way too slow
Love traffic, no not that kind of jam
There is a jam, I'm gettin' nothin'
My life is moving way too slow, love traffic
No not that kind of jam, I should be cruisin'
Love traffic, no not that kind of jam
There is a jam, I'm gettin' nothin'
My life is moving way too slow, love traffic
No not that kind of jam, I should be cruisin'
