Dictator

The Clash

Yes, I am the dictator
The more guns I got, the better

Yes, I am the liquidator

I carry that old birettaYou know there once was freedom

And you know how dangerous that can be

The people used to dance and sing

They used to run wild in the streetsBut now I am the voice, howling from your radio

From my amour plated Cadillac

You'll hear what I say goes

You'll hear what I say goesYes, I am the dictator

I satisfy the U.S. team

Because I always do my killing in the woods

And I keep the city gutter cleanYou know there once was freedom

You know how dangerous that can be

And all the people used to dance and sing

And they used to run wild in the streetsBecause I am the voice, howling from your radio

From my amour plated Cadillac

You'll hear what I say goes

What I, what I say goes, what I say goes Yes, I am the crusader

'Cause I'm twenty long years in exile

But but but but now I am the invader

And I'm never never gonna dieYes, I am the dictator

My name is on your ballot sheet

Until my box has got your, your cross

You know this form is incomplete You know there once was freedom

You know how dangerous that can be

The people used to dance and sing

And they used to run wild in the streetsBut now I am the voice, howling from your radio

From my amour plated Cadillac

You'll hear what I say goes

You'll hear what I say goes
