Newborn

Twisted Method

Saw you just the other day
I can't bare to see your face
And I know its my fault inside
You feel all this painI barely have the strength to move on
I got this guilt that's somethings wrong
So I just turn my head and walk the other way
I try to stick up for myself
All you do is bring me down so I'm tellin' you exactly what I thinkPull yourself to even the score
Fuck everything that you stand for
And I know I can't take this no moreCause its over
Cause its over
Cause its over now
Cause nothin' lasts foreverRemember how I was back in the day
All we used to do is play
Fantasies that everything would be ok
People grew up people change
Things'll never be the same
But I know I miss you so fucking muchCause its over
Cause its over
Cause its over now
Cause nothin' lasts foreverI go on about my day
Hopin' everything's ok
But I feel this in my mind
I will never ever hide
And its locked inside my brain
I can't seem to get away
Because nothin' lasts foreverEverything is not ok
I could tell your afraid
Come on and run awayRun awayYou think your makin' it too hard
With this sickness in my mind
You keep fuckin' with me bitch
I know that I can hide no matter what you do or what you say to me
I keep fightin'
And know this shit is fucked upBack on up
When I'm roll up my sleeve
Forget this pain that's takin' over me
I'm comin' on by my side
Its Friday night and I'm ready to rock so bring it onIts over
Cause its over

Cause its over nowI go on about my day
Hopin' everything's ok
But I feel this in my mind
I will never ever hide
And its locked inside my brain
I can't seem to get away
Because nothin' lasts foreverRun away!!!
