

One of Us

Dan Croll

(Heard you can't beat the rush
Give in and be one of us) Taking my time
I'm using my lungs
I'm wasting my breath
'Cause I want you to feel the same
Down on my luck
I fall to my knees
I'm vulnerable, please
It's shaking up out of me
I want you to see that I'm clean
I don't need that, I assure you
Heard you can't beat the rush
Give in and be one of us
Told you ten thousand times
That you'd rather be one of us
Filling up your lungs tonight
Turn into one of us
Coursing through your veins tonight
You're one of us The pressure I feel
The weight of my heels
Is building up fast
And I can't stand the aftermath
I try and hold back the urge
To run if I can't feel a surge
I want you to see that I'm clean
I don't need that, I assure you
Heard you can't beat the rush
Give in and be one of us
Told you ten thousand times
That you'd rather be one of us
Filling up your lungs tonight
Turn into one of us
Coursing through your veins tonight
You're one of us
Heard you can't beat the rush
Give in and be one of us Heard you can't beat the rush
Give in and be one of us
Told you ten thousand times
That you'd rather be one of us

Filling up your lungs tonight
Turn into one of us
Coursing through your veins tonight
You're one of us
