

The Wild

Pell

Last night I fell in love with the mirror
My reflection never lets me down
But tonight I see myself a little clearer
I wasn't happy with what I found,
Cause I'm worried about who I am, everybody know it's me
Feeling like I'm a ghost, even when they speak to me
Private school, fucking off, spent money on booze and trees
All the money, all the girls, materials ain't shit to me I'm just trying to make it home, cause I'm lost in the wild
A young man lost in the wild
When the rain calls out your name I say hello, I say hello
And the floors creak every night right down below me
When the wind calls out for love I tell it no, I tell it no
In the night I'm lost again, someone come find me
Yeah, far away I go, Far away I go, Far away I go Until I'm all alone, till I'm all alone, till I'm all alone
Far away I go, Far away I go, Far away I go
Till I'm all alone, till I'm all alone
Last night I fell in love with the hustle
It's been a long time working on a dream
So tonight I see myself above the troubles
As the music saves my life again
Now I'm running out, catching shows, groupies start to notice me
Attention to my music, I'm trading pain for company,
Luxury my focus cause I'm living, through a movie screen
Save me from the dark, and all the wild wandering Cause I'm trying to make it home
I said I'm trying to make it home
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>