

Faces

Night Ranger

Faces, pictures on the wall
Do you sleep at all when you sleep?
Faces, burning in your mind
FacesShe's trapped inside her own world
And I'm trying to get in
And she doesn't know what's goin' on
Or where she might have beenAnd she talks to many people
And she lives life through their eyes
And the voices down the hall
Tell her no reason where or whyAll of your life you've been missing the answer
It should be easy to tellYou see faces, pictures on the wall
Do you sleep at all when you sleep?
Faces, burning in your mind
Will it be the lies that you see?She hears the words of people
That live deep in her mind
And she wants to feel the passion
That's locked up insideThe pictures now are falling
There's no trace at all
And the voices that were calling her
No longer callAll of your life you've been missing the answer
It should be easy to tellYou see faces, pictures on the wall
Do you sleep at all when you sleep?
Faces, burning in your mind
Will it be the lies?What do you see?All of your life you've been hearing the answer
It should be easy to tellNo more faces, faces
Do you see faces?
Burning in your mind
No more facesHear me call
Hear me call
Hear me call
...

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>