

Everything Is Everything

Booker T. Jones

Things are gonna change
And not for better
Don't know what it means to me
But it's hopeless, hopeless.
Gotta get you home
Could be with anyone
I think of what I've done
Oh, you know it all.
Everything, is everything
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Everything, means everything
Can't understand a word, half of the stuff I'm sayin.
The things I do possess
Sometimes they own me too
What they gonna do to me
I think it's hopeless, hopeless.
What I can't explain
I'm sure you get it well
Ah, since I always wanted

I always wanted you.
Everything, is everything
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Everything, means everything
Can't understand a word, half of the stuff I'm sayin.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
This is what I want; look at what it did to me.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
This is what you want; this is what you get instead.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
This is what you want, I always wanted you.
Everything, is everything
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Everything, means everything
Can't understand a word, Half of the stuff I'm sayin.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
Can't understand a word, half of the stuff I'm sayin.
