Predetermined Path

I Declare War

Embrace malevolence in humanity with deep love
Shatter all that once was known
We have brought on filth and a famine
Wiping all whom have stood in our wayThis is a predetermined path
Destroy those whom
Which will destroy you, destroy you
Which will destroy you, destroy youNot a shred of hope left for humanity
Not a shred of hope left for humanity
Globalization running rampant across the land
Death is imminent to us all
Death is imminent to us all
We are dictated on the things we consumeThere is no fucking justification
To why we have destroyed our nation
When your system has failed you, where do you turn?
Corroded points of views with no moral values of right and wrongIf God truly existed
Humanity was his worst creation
The only destined path
We walk is toward the apocalypse
Find no hope and find no solace
Only embrace misanthropy
Find no hope and find no solace
Only embrace misanthropySacrifice yourself for the greater good
Of a flawed creation, flawed
