No Control

Groundbreaking

This is the last time,
I let you hurt me,
You make me feel so wrong
In everything I ever do.

You're so frustrating,
I think you're faking,
The things you say about you
Make me want to break you.

But here we go again,
No control inside my head,
My mind is sayin' "no",
My body's tellin' me "yes".
I used to be so strong,
Never used to feel all this stress,
But now I'm stuck in it,
There's no controlling it.

It seems the pressure is pushing me,
Into my own problems,
Into all my organs,
It's stealing all my breath,
Makes me sick just thinkin' bout it.
If I could kill it off,
If I could fucking end it.

Here we go again,
No control inside my head,
My mind is sayin' "no",
My body's tellin' me "yes".
I used to be so strong,
Never used to feel all this stress,
But now I'm stuck in it,
There's no controlling it.

Cannot help myself.
I just can't help myself,
I cannot help myself.
I just can't help it,

I cannot help myself.

I used to be a king,
But then you took my crown,
So sure of everything,
Now I know nothing about,
The further I will go,
The farther I fall back,
Oh well, I couldn't really give a shit,
Bout that, let's dance.

But here we go again,
No control inside my head,
My mind is sayin' "no."
My body's tellin' me "yes."
I used to be so strong,
Never used to feel all this stress,
But now I'm stuck in it,
There's no controlling it.

Cannot help myself.
I just can't help myself,
I cannot help myself.
I just can't help it,
I cannot help myself.
