

Audio War

Kottonmouth Kings

Click Bang Bang. And I open up the door.
Click Bang Bang. And they moving on the floor.
Click Bang Bang. And they rockin to the core.
Bang bang. (Might be a war.)
Bang bang. (An Au-dio-oo war.) Watch this, watch this.
Rap for the gap, where the rap is.
Fire for the crown when I cock this,
You already know where the crop is! Hits fire when I hit the bass
Slick round when I hit the haze
Chalk full of heat, might as well pull the 40 Cal and be on the road ... Look motherfucker, I'm on fire
Only one way to live on the high wire
Don't fucking care about a short life
Bust anybody fucking with the empire
Bust anybody trying to get a piece of my team
All out, come live the dream
Live all out, that's comedy
I'm gonna give it all force with my gangsta lean
Ain't nobody gonna take our checks,
Ain't nobody gonna slow our effects.
Ain't nobody gonna make our bleed.
Ain't nobody gonna hold us ... Ain't nobody gonna fuck with ...
(Hell no.)
Ain't nobody gonna ...
(Hell no.)
Ain't nobody gonna ... Click Bang Bang. And I open up the door. (You already know.) Click Bang Bang. And they moving on the floor. (That's the way it goes.)
