Underneath the Waves

Hale

The stars beneath the sky they tell me you're a secret.
And every time I wake up in the morning
Rain is falling down on me; I feel free.You caught me by surprise. I asked you to believe me.
Without a lie we'll never have to say and feel we're sorry.
Don't say we're sorry. Soon you'll see.I'm learning, I'm learning you now.
Stars fading, free falling into youThis time I'm sure of what I'm looking for.
And that's what I want you to know.
And I won't ever let you go, let you goUnderneath the waves,
I can feel you underneath the waves.I'm learning, I'm learning you now.
Stars fading, free falling into youThis time I'm sure of what I'm looking for.
And that's what I want you to know.
And I won't ever let you go, let you go.It's all been said and done to me, I know it.
Just let me have the chance to prove my cause.
And I don't know what lies ahead for us.
In any road I'll let you come my way.This time i'm sure of what I'm looking for.
And that's what I want you to know.
And I won't ever let you go, let you go.And I'm ready for you now,
I'm ready for you now.
Be ready for me now,
Be ready for me now. . .
Show me love.
