

Drop In The Ocean (feat. AronChupa)

Omi

Waiting here patiently for you to say that

You sent him on his way, you sent him on his way

And I know you're worried, been tossing and turning

It's keeping you awake, thinking it was a mistakeBut it's time

You knew he was no good, had to let him go

You'll be fine

Just reach out your hand now, you got mine to holdI'm telling you that ooh, we were meant to be

Darling can't you see that I'm your whole wide world

And he's a drop in the ocean

Ooh, wouldn't you agree

I'm the only ship that's sailing on your sea

And he's a drop in the ocean

He's a drop in the ocean, haA drop in the ocean

Ha, a drop in the ocean

He's a drop in the oceanSee what the earth brings

Don't sweat the small things

It's gonna be alright, it's gonna be alright

It's only a moment, just keep moving forward

And I'mma make you mine, yeah I'mma make you mineBut it's time you knew he was no good, had to let him go

And you'll be fine

Just reach out your hand now, you got mine to holdI'm telling you that ooh, we were meant to be

Darling can't you see that I'm your whole wide world

And he's a drop in the ocean

Ooh, wouldn't you agree

I'm the only ship that's sailing on your sea

And he's a drop in the ocean

A drop in the oceanI'm telling you that ooh, we were meant to be

Darling can't you see that I'm your whole wide world

And he's a drop in the ocean

Ooh, wouldn't you agree

I'm the only ship that's sailing on your sea

And he's a drop in the ocean

He's a drop in the ocean, ha yeah
