Summertime

Big Brovaz

Oh yeah, you know what?

I'm envisioning, pretty women, rim's spinning

All my homies dressed in expensive linenIt ain't a dream, that's the life we're livin

Movin' up to a new positionPeople used to look and be like

I ain't never gonna be shit that's until I gotta

6 Hundred, V dozen full, Y equipped whip

And I never stop stacking chipsFool got bling in the chain, got bling on the wrist

And this type of life is priceless

'Cause ain't nothing on earth like this

What you knowWhen it's hot, it gets crazy, we pop Krystal on a daily

Just me and my ladies, we know how to make

You move your feet to the beat

Can you feel the heat, tell me sisters

Do you feel me? Brothers roll with meSummertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah

There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeah

Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah

There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeahBoys and girls, go find yo friends

Ladies and gentlemen, call your partners

Let them feel this time of year again, don't be scared to shout

Come on and move yo body, let's all get down

Tap yo feet to the beat, come on and party with meIt's a pretty hot day and all I wanna do Is play with the homies from around the way okayHater's better stay in the crib if they wanna come

Spray Mac 10's and tech 9's all the time

See we trying to have fun and it doesn't matter

Where you're from so if you strap, please don't come out

With your guns see us having a party, sipping on BacardiMe and my family don't hate us

Look we are making papers, we simply the greatest, Big Brovaz

You know you love us, you can't deny us so come and join us

Get off your chair and throw your bows in the air

We repping south side bric city better beware alrightSummertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah

There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeah

Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah

There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeahSexy guys in their convertibles

Oh and how they're checking you

'Cause they wanna know who you are when in the sun

It's unbelievable, all eyes they be watching you

'Cause they want you're name and numberAin't nutten but riding going on, ball out to my song

I done got me a hot whip, now I got them hot chick

Stripping down to their thongs, don't hate me

'Cause I'm on top baby, that's just where I belongSo long, Big Bro's bin waiting for their time to perform
You get me and now it's popping, it's gonna get real messy
Don't think were crazy fools 'cause we role around town
Rocking crazy jewelsWe already dun paid our do's now Big Bro's the family
That's making the moves only got one motto 'Never to lose'
Get your hands in the air, now follow the rulesSummertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for' oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way
