He Would Tell You

Jonny Diaz

he is half of the reason you were born in that november rain but heâ€™s fully the man that taught you to love and made you who we love today itâ€™s sad that i never could meet him but i see him in you every day and if he had a chance to tell you his thoughts i feel that i know what heâ€™d say he would tell you he loves you and he is so proud of the woman once his little girl you look just like your mother when she was your age and thereâ€™s nothing thatâ€™s more beautiful he would say that heâ€™s near and promise he hears when you speak to him late in the night and it hurts him so bad to look down when youâ€™re sad and know he is the reason you cry and he canâ€™t quite promise you when but he knows that heâ€™ll hold you again but until that time keep your eyes on the sky and go change the world youâ€™re in heâ€™d remind you of christmas with family and that jesus should always come first and itâ€™s much more amazing heâ€™s now celebrating with the angels embracing the birth and he canâ€™t walk with you down the aisle but maybe itâ€™s better that way cause he is so sure that heâ€™d cry like a baby the day that he gives you away
