

Beautiful World

Take That

Here standing in the rain
The sun has gone again and nothing's gonna change
Time, I need a little time as you slip out of sight
And nothing heals the pain And I know that it's you
That's stopping me from falling
Crashing down, losing ground 'til I see you again
And you know The sun will shine and we will see
There's nothing standing in our way
Love will stand and never break
Never thought this could be me Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world Words are hard to keep inside
Even though I've tried, impossible to hide And you know that it's me
That's stopping you from falling
Crashing down, losing ground 'til I see you again
And you know The sun will shine and we will see
There's nothing standing in our way
Love will stand and never break
Never thought this could be me Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world I'll be the stars guiding you
I'll be the place that you hide
I'd run a thousand miles
A thousand miles to be by your side The sun will shine and we will see
There's nothing standing in our way
Love will stand and never break
Never thought this could be me Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world
It's a beautiful world
