

Christ Is On The Lawn

Treble Charger

Lonely, more the night
Candle lost its light
Lines begin to show
There's another kind
Listen here, it's time
Lying just below
Shouldn't you believe
Everything you see
'Least as much as all
The things you know
All the things you know
All the pews are gone
Dealer's wife has left today
Where she went, she wouldn't say

And Christ is on the lawn
Move your mouth the same
Just repeat the name
As if it's wrong to you
That's an odd request
Try to do what's best
When you're told it's true
Wouldn't you believe?
Someone's bound to see
Mind the shade and
Leave the rest alone
Leave the rest alone
