

Awaken

Wolves At The Gate

Who's shut the mouths of beasts
And with the sound of his voice it renders peace?
Who's drowned the earth with rain
And made a promise to man to never do the same? Who's crushed the walls of stone
By the use of the sound of the trumpets blown?
Who appoints the kings to throne?
The One True King! Who's quenched a violent fire?
Raised and destroyed empires?
Oh how you manifest your grace and power
My Great King! You're my Great King
My Great King!
You're my Great King How can I question Your power?
For where was I when You laid the earth
In that time and hour?
How can I question Your might
When even angels bow down to you
To kneel at your sight? When men cast their doubt upon Your name
You are unchanging
Still the immutable God
When nations rage against Your throne
You are unchanging
Still the immutable God Awake my soul
Give me eyes to see
The King exalted
Deserving and worthy Awake my soul
Give me words to say
Among the nations
Proclaiming Your glory Awake my soul
Awake my soul Oh how You've proven
That there in no one
Like You Ever faithful
To such faithless men
Like us Awake my soul
Awake my soul Oh how you've shown me
That this isn't a blind faith
In a distant God
You went before me and You
Bore my sin Who am I to doubt You?
Let me hear Your voice

My ears have heard You
Let me see Your face
My eyes have seen You For I believe
For I, I believe Great is Thy faithfulness
O' God my Father and King
There is no shadowy presence
To Your promise I cling
Thou changest not Thy compassions
As Thou hast been
Thou forever and ever will be When men cast their doubt upon Your name
You are unchanging
Still the immutable God
When nations rage against Your throne
You are unchanging
Still the immutable God Awake my soul
Give me eyes to see
The King exalted
Deserving and worthy Awake my soul
Give me words to speak
Among the nations
Proclaiming Your glory Oh how you've shown me
That this isn't a blind faith
In a distant God
You went before me and You
Bore my sin I believe
Awake my soul
I believe
My faithful King
For I believe
