Need to Know

Soraya

It's late in the evening
And I know I'm not where I should be
Anyplace and everyplace is lonely
When you're not with meAnd I wrap your arms around me
As if they could protect me from Anything and everything
That comes my wayBaby, now tell me am I clinging to a dream
Are you a fantasy or exactly what you seem to be
I need to know, before I fall in loveI'm walking down the street
Searching for something to entertain me
To keep my mind
From missing youBut nothing can satisfy me
The way you do without even trying
With your easy ways
That look in your eyesBaby, now tell me am I clinging to a dream
Are you a fantasy or exactly what you seem to be
Baby, now tell me am I, am I clinging to a dream
Are you a fantasy or exactly, exactly what you seem to be
I need to know, before I, I need to know, before I
I i need to know, before I fall in loveAnd when it's late at night
Do you dream of me holding you tight
'Cause I think of you all the time
I wonder do thoughts of me invade your mindI need to know, before I, I need to know, before I
I need to know, before I fall in love
