Sisters, O Sisters

John Lennon

We lost our green land

We lost our clean air

We lost our true wisdom

And we live in despairO sisters, O sisters

Let's stand up right now

It's never too late

To start from the startO wisdom, O wisdom

That's what we ask for

And yes, my dear sisters

We must learn to askO wisdom, O wisdom

That's what we ask for

That's what we live for nowO wisdom, O wisdom

That's what we ask for

That's what we live for nowO sisters, O sisters

Let's wake up right on

It's never too late

To shout from our heartsO freedom, O freedom

That's what we fight for

And yes, my dear sisters

We must learn to fightFreedom, O freedom

That's what we ask for

That's what we live for nowFreedom, O freedom

That's what we ask for

That's what we live for nowO sisters, O sisters

Let's give up no more

It's never too late

To build a new worldNew world, O new world

That's what we live for

And yes, my dear sisters

We must learn to liveNew world, O new world

That's what we live for

That's what we must now learn to build

New world. O new world

That's what we live for

That's what we must now learn to buildNew world, O new world

That's what we live for

That's what we must now learn to build

New world, O new world

That's what we live for

That's what we must learn to build
