Breaking Out

Steph Macleod

Standing in the valley of indecision
Tryin' to make some sense out of a strange condition that we see
I've gotta find a way out 'cause nobody would listen
So I turn my back and now I'm on my wayBreakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' out
Breakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' outI hear the things they tell me but I don't believe it
Gotta find a place where I can breathe and just be me
Gonna shake up the world into a new position
Now I'm lettin' you know that I am on my wayBreakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' out
Breakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' outI can't stop that feeling deep inside of me
Now I finally see the reason why
'Cause in my heart I know it's not some fantasy
When I lift my eyes up to the skyIt's a brand new day, but it seems like an old one
People playin' games, but it's no game I want to play
They tried to hand me the dice but I knew they were loaded
So I turned my back and now I'm on my wayBreakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' out
Breakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' out
Breakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' out
Breakin' out, I'm on my way
Breakin' out
