

Keeping Up With Changes

Glowfriends

Am I losing my mind
Vacuumed every room for the second time today
You can't go through your life
Without killing something or someone at some time

Losing touch with everything that I like
Keeping busy day and night
Am I farsighted or just blind
It was right there in front of me
But the whole time,
I swear I saw nothing wrong
I swear I saw nothing wrong at all

Remaining 5 minutes is instrumental
