

Sweater

Told Slant

Talking used to pass the time
And smoking used to pass the time But talking became a waste of time
And smoking became a waste of time
And my life became a pantomime
Of my life when I liked to be alive You got a new sweater
But I didn't know til I saw it in a picture
My life stayed the same
But you wouldn't know cause I never take pictures
And I don't understand why you're living there
And I don't understand your sweater
Ooooooh-oh
Ooooooh-oh
Ooooooh-oh
Ooooooh-oh I wanna move to the woods by the side of the highway
Where I can watch the deer spent their last living minutes
But I, I, I, I stopped wearing my bomber jacket
When I, I, I, I realized that I was little
And I, I, I, I stopped wearing my navy peacoat
When I, I, I, I realized my thoughts were ugly
And I, I, I, I don't understand your sweater
And I, I, I, I don't understand why you're living there
