

Devil

Papa Roach

My life
The blood shedding like never before
But I finally see your face
Its just a mirror looking back at me
My reflection is all I see I dont wanna finish what we started
I never should've let you in
You thought I was an easy target
Now I know who you are, who the devil is
You can try to take my salvation
You can try to take everything
I'm not asleep to your temptation
'Cause I know who you are and who the devil is There's nowhere safe to hide
I can feel your presence
