Gone

Kosheen

How come?In a dream I had a final vision
How come you just wanna be my friend? How come?
Will you ever have to justify?
The hidden meaning in your time again? How come?Im gone, gone just like the past because Im gone
And you wont be the last 'cause Ill be strong
Now can you hear my voice because Im gone?In an ordinary conversation
I come to my realization, how come?
Then you come to me with velvet skin
How come I did let you in? How come?Im gone, gone just like the past because Im gone
And you wont be the last, Ill be strong
Now can you hear my voice because Im gone?Still it breaks me down inside
As I walk through the fire
I am a chosen man
Nothing can change me at all
You lie, now listenIn a dream I had a final vision
How come you just wanna be my friend? How come?Im gone, gone just like the past because Im gone
You wont be the last, Ill be strong
Now can you hear my voice because Im gone?Im gone, gone just like the past because Im gone
You wont be the last and Ill be strong
Now can you hear my voice because Im gone?Can you hear me?
You lie, you lie
Nothing will change you
Nothing will change you
In a dream I had
In a dream I had
You lie
