Shame Shame Shame Shame

Mark Collie

Shame, shame, shame, shame
You're stirring up that old flame
I know you'll steal my heart again
No way that I can win
Shame, shame, shame, shameYou're like an angel from above
A vision any man could love
But deep inside I realize
You're just a devil in disguiseShame, shame, shame, shame
You're stirring up that old flame
I know you'll steal my heart again
No way that I can win
Shame, shame, shame, shameThe day you said that we were through
I swore that I'd be over you
But to my lonely heart's surprise
You walked right back into my lifeShame, shame, shame, shame
You're stirring up that old flame
You're gonna steal my heart again
No way that I can win
Shame, shame, shame, shameI know you'll steal my heart again
No way that I can win
Shame, shame, shame, shame
