The Gathering Chant

Neulore

You've been running from the only thing you knew
Still you find rest within the meadow, darkness lingers in the shadowBut the dead of the night it offers hollow truth
And there's a solemn sanctuary, rescue from the way you've carried, carriedSo gather here, oh gather now my child
Oh you are safe here, from the wild
And raise a cheer that rises like a fire
Your voice won't tire, yeah we're alive hereThere's a hum that whispers traces of your tear
Oh evil creeps in from the roots, yeah that evil is after you, after youSo gather here, oh gather now my child
And raise a cheer that rises like a fire
Your voice won't tire, yeah we're alive here(instrumental)So gather here, oh gather now my child
Oh you are safe here, from the wild
And raise a cheer that rises like a fire
Your voice won't tire, yeah we're alive here, we're alive here, we're alive here
