Fallen Angel

Trapt

She finds beauty in the souls of the broken
Between the lines of divide and the armor we have chosen
An angel born with her eyes wide open
She's taking back the innocent stolenBut can its footsteps walk a slippery slope
You hit the ground before your wings could unfoldFallen angel I know you got souls to save
But broken wings won't fly today
So, let them mend before you fly away
Fallen angel stay
Tomorrow you can fly away
She is changing a world that I created
How I used to feel before, all that's faded
The angel fell from a heaven I've forsaken
To a promised land are we takenBut can its footsteps walk a slippery slope
You hit the ground before your wings could unfoldFallen angel I know you got souls to save
But broken wings won't fly today
So, let them mend before you fly away
Fallen angel stay
Tomorrow you can fly awayYou fell on Earth, fell on Earth for me to save
Let me deliver you, deliver you from all your pain
You fell on Earth, fell on Earth for me to save
Let me deliver you, deliver you from all your pain
Fallen angel I know you got souls to save
But broken wings won't fly today
So, let them mend before you fly away
Fallen angel there is nothing you can change
You fell to Earth for me to save
So, come on let me take your pain away
Fallen angel stay
Tomorrow you can fly away
