Chips To Go

Du Blonde

Hoping boy don't you know you have got me over your shoulder
There's a better life waiting there for me
As far as I can see
In the morning when I wake
Before I begin to give and take the life that folds for us
Even if we must
Let my fame to fuss
In time the weather system brings the rain
(I got a bet on us that our two heads will breed a hurricane)
In time these fallen leaves will mess within our town
(If love is just a word for us then why'd I kind of let it hold me down)
What is it we live and crush
No time for fun just focus on the past
It's all we're ever told
If you wait and gold
Get back to be sold
Is it so hard to believe
The more you give the more you will receive
For all that we know
Life is but a show
Get your chips to go
In time the weather system brings the rain
(I got a bet on us that our two heads will breed a hurricane)
In time these fallen leaves will mess within our town
(If love is just a word for us then why'd I kind of let it hold me down)
In time the weather system brings the rain
(I got a bet on us that our two heads will breed a hurricane)
In time these fallen leaves will mess within our town
(If love is just a word for us then why'd I kind of let it hold me down)
