Until We Fall Back In Love Again

Jeff Carson

At night when the restless wind blows
Sometimes I watch you sleep
Wondering how someone so close
Could be so far out of reachI don't know why we're apart
But I know here in my heartTill we kiss, till we touch
Till we both feel the rush
Till we lie face to face
And I feel your embraceI'll ride out this storm we're in
Until we fall back in love againOur love is just like the moon
Sometimes it comes and goes
And there are phases that it goes through
That cause these ebbs and flowsThe reasons aren't always so clear
But I will always be hereTill we kiss, till we touch
Till we both feel the rush
Till we lie face to face
And I feel your embraceI'll ride out this storm we're in Until we fall back in love againOh, I'll ride out this storm we're in
Until we fall back in love again
