Let Go

Natalie Grant

Changing every where I am
I've been stuck in the rut, I've been caught up
Yeah, it happens fastI'm moving to where I wanna begin, yeah
I wanna find new life and see new eyes
And breathe againI'm gonna stop now, take a breath
It's all so crazyYeah, I'm ready to let go
Looking forward to don't know
Forget about yesterday and get away
And live in the right nowYeah, I'm ready to let go
And I'm ready to follow
Anywhere the road bends, where it ends
I don't know, let goOh, we live in the future and we've got our regrets, yeah
'Cause we don't live in, we don't get into the presence and It's hectic in my mind, gonna leave it behind'Cause I'm ready to let go
Looking forward to don't know
Forget about yesterday and get away
And live in the right nowYeah, I'm ready to let go
And I'm ready to follow
Anywhere the road bends, where it ends
I don't knowDon't wanna open the blanket
Don't wanna worry so much
Gonna live my life and not lose touch
I'm gonna let go, yeah, yeahYeah, I'm ready to let go
Looking forward to don't know
Forget about yesterday and get away
And live in the right nowYeah, I'm ready to let go
And I'm ready to follow, yeah
Anywhere the road bends, where it ends
I don't knowSo let it go
Yeah, I'm gonna let go
Oh, let it go
