

Waiting (feat. Andrew Garcia)

Avalon Young

I'm not trying to make you out to be a bad dude.
I know when you're out these girls are getting at you.
always drinking. don't remember what you're thinking.
been playing this part for too long.

baby stop it you're really overreacting.
always fighting with that shit you just imagine.
it's all up in your head.
no I wasn't in her bed.
now it's too late you're gone.

you'll come back from a night out with your friends.
and you'll think back to all of the times when you had a good girl waiting at home for ya.
a good girl waiting at home.
and it's a little too late to regret it.
a little too soon for me to just forget it.
but you had a good girl waiting at home for ya.
a gooooooooood
(she's not waiting anymore)

no more. no more.
she's not waiting no more. no more.
na na na na.
no more. no more.
she's not waiting. no more. no more.
(she's not waiting anymore)
now go ahead and do your own thing.
imma stay here in my own lane.
I'm not worried about you.
not concerned with you or what you do.

I know you think I'm out here with these bitches.
guess it's a little late for me to try and fix it.

what I say goes.
wanted it my way but we lost control.
(prechorus)
(chorus)

you had a good girl at home.
but now she won't pick up the phone.
she's not waiting anymore.
the time to leave your heart on the floor.
and I remember feeling like I was doing all the shit for the right guy.
and I'm not waiting anymore.
I'm not waiting anymore.
you had a good girl waiting.
yeah you had a good girl.
you had a good girl waiting at home.
yeah you had a good girl.

(don't worry, she won't know.)
