

Easier to Forget

Allison Moorer

I've heard it said, "Life leaves you memories that are precious"
If that's true, it hasn't left me any yet
There are none that I've thought of I can cherish
For me it's easier to forget Looking back is not the way to mend my heartache
Remembering only brings me regret
When I dig up the past, I find a love that didn't last
So for me it's easier to forget I'd hate to think these memories I've been given
Are the only ones I'm ever gonna get
'Cause it hurts if I try to relive 'em
For me it's easier to forget Looking back is not the way to mend my heartache
Remembering only brings me regret
When I dig up the past, I find a love that didn't last
So for me it's easier to forget
For me it's easier to forget
