Cradel of Empty Promises

Morning Again

To only see, what's chosen for you to see. To only see, what you've been told is real.
Birthplace of indifference, we must not accept this. X(2)
I cannot accept this. I cannot accept this.
Try to link me to your life, try to link me to your lies.
Unique in from and function.
Only from this war you gain.
So much below the surface.
So quick to shift the blame.
You can't link me to your life, you can't link me to your lies. X(2)Cradle of empty promise.Once the truth is seen, it can never be lost.Cradle of empty promise to you.
