Intro:Feel the thunder in the sky and the lightning when it strikes Flash of light, that's your life there's no way you can escape, no more time to wonder why, no more evil paradise fear the light, feel the light and it's way too late to pray Run away now, run go hide. You can run, you can try to survive
And I doubt it so seriously, you'll stay alive now it's over and it's time for our lord O'Jehovah to call in his souljah Revealin' the revelation and eliminatin' no mo' Gog
And it's no time, no time, no time, no time for repentin'
And it's no time, no time, no time for you to be trippin
Think of the murders, people you murder - people you murdered
So may you rest (rest) in (in) peace.Chorus:And it won't be long, it won't be long, it won't be long before Babylon (Babylon) the Great has fallen (fallen) and the saints go marching in (2x)Verse 1:We've been livin' in this world so crazy, and it's got a whole lot more crazier now cause now we barely make it, day to day we can't escape it so the only way to face it or to end it is to take it Frustrated, can't balance your mind, when you feelin' like grabbing that nine and got to do somethin' drastic to do for the family Look, I ain't got to tell 'em that there's niggas living that real Never really did a thing for us and never really sat down and explained to us that it wouldn't be the same for us, and tryna make a living would be dangerous Now we sitting on the block pissed off'n while we watchin' all the big dogs ballin'
We get up and again a thug starts fallin', so we waitin' till our God come callin'
Swing low, swing low, take me away from here -- please know, That we livin' in the last of the last days and when he come and he catch you in your bad ways...Hook/chorus:It's too late to apologize (Too late to apologize)
It's too late (It's way too late to say sorry, too late)
Said, it's too late to apologize (Too late to apologize)
It's too late (It's way too late to say sorry, too late)And it won't be long, it won't be long, it won't be long before Babylon (Babylon) the Great has fallen (fallen) and the saints go marching in (2x)Verse 2:Death is right around the corner don't let it creep up on ya

You ended up a goner, murdered right before your eyes Or you could be down to ride, commit a 187 homicide too late to apologize too late to pray to God when the sky start fallin' too late to try to interpret the writing on the wall and it's way too late, to pray, you too late - tribulation too great for you to escape it (escape)
It's the end of the world and still ain't got no satisfaction Livin' here forever I just can't fathom now so you know I appreciate that ransom (that ransom)
And it won't be long, it won't be long, it won't be long before
The world is deceived by the King of the North
He may scream peace but it's really gonna mean war (war) Government come tumbling down we never need 'em no more (more)
It's way too late to say sorry, too late (too late)It's too late to apologize (Too late to apologize)
It's too late (It's way too late to say sorry, too late)
Said, it's too late to apologize (Too late to apologize)
It's too late (It's way too late to say sorry, too late)And it won't be long, it won't be long, it won't be long before Babylon (Babylon) the Great has fallen (fallen) and the saints go marching in
