Between Your Lines

Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!

Say, what you wanna need to say
Just hide away
I'm sick of remaining in walls that are just made of smoke
Your lies and the fake
Let's go in vain while you're the only one who fallsHow can you just be so proud?
When all you did was tell all those lies
But you're doing wrong this time
I know who you are'Cause I can read between your lines
And if you fool me once
I can bet you won't do it twice
I try to keep it black and white
And if you want the truth,
Never play with me you'll regret itShame, that you're always the same
To all your friends
That you are ready to sell them out, anytime
To save your own face
Now can't you see that you're a new self in my sizeHow can you just be so proud?
When all you did was tell all those lies
But you're doing wrong this time
I know who you areI've seen, so many times
The way you try to bring me down
You're made of proportionate mind
But it's time to shake the lies
Shake the lies'Cause I can read between your lines
And if you fool me once
I can bet you won't do it twice
I try to keep it black and white
And if you want the truth,
Never play with me you'll regret itIt's time for getting you down
Get back on solid ground
And all you have
Is arms ready to fall downIt's time for getting you down
Get back on solid ground
And all you have
Is arms ready to fall downLet me try, let me fight
Take a breath now is the time
Rise and fall, take it all
Breaking down all of these wallsLet me try, let me fight
Let me do this one more time

Rise and fall, take it all
Breaking down all of these wallsMy heart, it's like I'm being denied
You unjudge me'Cause I can read between your lines
And if you fool me once
I can bet you won't do it twice
I try to keep it black and white
And if you want the truth,
Never play with me you'll regret itIt's time for getting you down
Get back on solid ground
And all you have
Is arms ready to fall downIt's time for getting you down
Get back on solid ground
And all you have
Is arms ready to fall down
